Ordinance Designating the Faith Rock, ca 1782 Revolutionary War Incident, as a Local Historic Landmark in Randolph County, North Carolina

WHEREAS, CHAPTER 160A, Article 19, Part 3C, of the North Carolina General Statutes provides for the designation of Local Historic Landmarks; and

WHEREAS, on June 2, 2008, the Randolph County Board of Commissioners adopted an Ordinance which established the Randolph County Historic Landmark Preservation Commission to perform those duties of recommending designation and regulating Local Historic Landmarks pursuant to N.C. General Statutes; and

WHEREAS, the Randolph County Board of Commissioners has taken into full consideration all historical data and information contained in the report as submitted by the Randolph County Historic Landmark Preservation Commission; and

WHEREAS, the North Carolina Department of Cultural Resources, State Historic Preservation Office, has reviewed the historical data and noted that the report provides adequate information to determine whether the Faith Rock, ca. 1782 Revolutionary War Incident, meets the required special significance and integrity for Local Historic Landmark designation; and

WHEREAS, the Randolph County Historic Landmark Preservation Commission and the Randolph County Board of Commissioners have held the required public hearings and published legal notices with mailings to adjoining property owners; and

WHEREAS, the Randolph County Historic Landmark Preservation Commission has adopted a unanimous resolution requesting that the Board of County Commissioners designate the Faith Rock as a Local Historic Landmark; and

WHEREAS, this property is more specifically described as follows:

Faith Rock, and the ca. 1782 Revolutionary War Incident, is located on a 1 acre site considered primary out of a 13.88 secondary tract, 216 W. Main Street, Franklinville Township, N.C. PIN# 7792258642, Owner, FBD Perry J. Conner IRA;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED, this 2nd Day of December, 2013, by the Randolph County Board of Commissioners that:

- 1: The property known as Faith Rock and previously described is hereby designated as a Randolph County Local Historic Landmark pursuant to Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3C, of the North Carolina General Statutes.
- 2: The site of the Faith Rock as described shall not be materially altered only following the issuance of a Certificate of Appropriateness from the Randolph County Historic Landmark Preservation Commission.
- 3: A suitable sign may be posted indicating the designation as a Randolph County Local Historic Landmark.
- 4: Copies of this Ordinance shall be filed and indexed in the Office of the Clerk to the Board of County Commissioners, the Randolph County Register of Deeds, the Randolph County Tax Department, and the Randolph County Planning Department as required by applicable law.

Upon the motion of Lanier, and a second by Frye, the foregoing Ordinance was passed upon its first reading by a vote of 5-0.

This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after the date of its passage.
