

DO I NEED A TEMPORARY FOODSERVICE PERMIT?

(Food Service Operations Exempt from Permit Requirements)

1. Only Non-profit, Tax exempt and Political groups may cook foods for sale to the public without a permit, so long as they operate not more frequently than once per month for not more than two consecutive days. This means they could operate one 2-day weekend per month. These groups must have information available to prove their exempt status.

Exempt Groups	Written Proof of Exemption
Nonprofit Corporations	Copy of one-page Articles of Incorporation which certifies nonprofit status.
Exempt from Federal Income Tax	A document with your federal tax ID number on it.
Political Committees	Compliance with G.S. 163-278.6(14) see attachment

☐ Exempt organizations should include the necessary documentation as a part of the Permit Exemption Letter found in this packet. ☐

The following are examples of groups exempt from permit requirements:

2. Foods that can be sold without a permit for any number of days include the following:

- |   |   |   |
|---|---|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>❖ Dip Ice Cream</li> <li>❖ Popcorn</li> <li>❖ Candy</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>❖ Cotton Candy</li> <li>❖ Packaged Chips</li> <li>❖ Canned or bottled soft drinks</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>❖ Candied Apple</li> <li>❖ Crackers</li> </ul> |
|---|---|---|

- ❖ Drinks served in disposable cups. Lemonade, orange and grapefruit juices are the only “fresh” fruit juices that can be sold without a permit.
- ❖ Commercially packaged and labeled sandwiches, pizza etc.
 Wrapped sandwiches may be purchased from a permitted restaurant and resold, if they are not opened before sale to the customer. Also, pizza cannot be purchased whole and sold by the slice. Nacho Cheese cannot be sold unless in individual commercial packages. Bulk service usually requires a permit. Contact the Health Department to clarify this issue.

Note: If your menu qualifies as being exempt from permitting, please fill out the Permit Exemption Letter and check the box indicating that you have an exempt menu. Then turn to the back and list out your menu items so that we can confirm that your menu qualifies for exempt status.

3. Persons who hold a valid Mobile Food Unit or Pushcart permit from this or another County Health Department in North Carolina will not need another permit for single days of operation. These persons are required to notify the local Health Department of their sites of operations within the county. If a Mobile Food Unit stays for a multiple day event, a temporary food service permit will be required.

FOODSERVICE OPERATIONS REQUIRING A PERMIT

1. Food vendors (individuals or groups that cannot prove that they are non-profit) that sell cooked foods (other than exempt foods listed above) must have a permit.
2. Non-profit groups that want to operate more often than once per month must have a permit.

These operations must contact the Randolph County Health Department at (336) 318-6262 to obtain the necessary permit information.
